Standing Rules of the DEMOCRATIC CLUB OF THE CONEJO VALLEY

The Standing Rules of the DEMOCRATIC CLUB OF THE CONEJO VALLEY supplement the Bylaws of the CLUB. Standing Rules establish policies relating to the details of the administration of the CLUB and may be adopted, amended or rescinded by majority vote at any regular or special CLUB meeting with previous notice. (RONR 11th ed. p. 265, ll 32)

SR1 Membership (ARTICLE II)

SR1-1 Member's Duties (ARTICLE II C)

In all meetings of the CLUB, its sub-committees, and online communications in the Google Groups, members shall adhere to the standards of decorum as stated in Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised, current edition (RONR), and as commonly practiced by similar bodies. A member's personal credibility, character, ethics or morals shall not be questioned during aforementioned meetings.

SR1-2 Conflict of Interest (ARTICLE II C. 7)

A conflict of interest exists if a CLUB member acts in a manner contrary to the mission and purpose of the CLUB. Financial controls are effective in preventing a conflict of interest between the CLUB and its vendors. The following guidelines for transactions with related parties and organizations apply:

SR1-2-1 CLUB members and/or their immediate families who propose entering into transactions with the CLUB shall recuse themselves from discussions and voting on those transactions.

SR1-2-2 All transactions over $1000 are subject to an outside bid process, with a minimum of two additional bids solicited, or as approved by the Executive Board.

SR1-2-3 Approval of related-party transactions requires a majority vote of those members present and voting.

SR1-3 Dues and Membership Status (ARTICLE II - Section 3)

SR1-3-1 The amount of annual dues for individual members is $25, for families is $35, for seniors is $15 and for students is $15.

SR1-4 Discipline or Termination of Membership for Cause (ARTICLE II - Sec 2 A & B)

SR1-4-1 "Without prejudice" means that members appointed to the Special Committee to investigate allegations shall not be involved directly with the allegations. They shall be able to make a fair and unbiased decision.

SR1-4-2 "Due process" means fairness. It guarantees a fundamental right to be informed of the nature and cause of the charges against the member.

SR1-4-3 If the CLUB President has any personal involvement with the allegations, the next officer in the line of succession makes the appointments.

SR1-4-4 The file retention period for documentation in the confidential file is consistent with the applicable statute of limitations.

SR2 Officers (ARTICLE III)

SR2-1 In the event the President expects to be absent for a single meeting, the President may appoint any member of the Executive Board to act as temporary President. (ARTICLE III – Section 3- A)

SR2-2 Order of Succession (ARTICLE III - Section 3)

SR2-2-1 In the event of the extended absence or termination of the President, the Executive Vice President assumes the duties of the President until such time as the President returns or an election is held.

SR2-2-2 In the event of the absence or termination of the President and the Executive Vice President, the Administrative Vice President calls the meeting to order and presides until the immediate election of a President pro tem. In the absence of the Administrative Vice President, the Secretary calls the meeting to order and presides until the immediate election of a President pro tem.

SR3 Meetings, Agendas and Business (ARTICLE V)

SR3-1 Closed Executive Sessions (ARTICLE V - Section 7)

SR3-1-1 A closed Executive Session is limited to CLUB members and is called when topics under discussion should not be made public.

SR3-1-2 Minutes for a closed Executive Session are approved prior to adjournment and retained by the Secretary in a separate file.

SR3-1-3 Details of the closed Executive Session shall not be made public. An official statement of the proceedings may be released.

SR3-2 Regular meetings (ARTICLE V-Section A) are held on the second Wednesday of each month. The doors open at 6:30 p.m., and the business meeting begins at 7 p.m.

SR3-2-1 All regular meetings are held at North Ranch Community Center, 1400 N. Westlake Blvd, Thousand Oaks, CA.

SR3-2-2 CLUB members are notified by the Secretary of any changes with seventy-two hours notice.

SR3-3 If a quorum is not present and immediate action is necessary, a majority of members present and voting may approve motions, which shall be ratified at the next regular meeting of the CLUB.

SR3-4 Cell phones shall be turned off or to vibrate mode. All necessary calls shall be taken or made outside the meeting room. This rule applies to all general, special and executive board meetings.

SR3-5 It is recommended that all motions over ten words be in writing.

SR4 Electronic, Telephonic & Video Communication (ARTICLE V – Section 8)

SR4-1 CLUB business is defined as the promotion of the mission and purpose of the CLUB.

SR4-2 The Executive Board may hold telephonic or email meetings in an emergency, which is defined as a situation in which lack of action or a decision would adversely affect progress toward the mission and purpose of the CLUB.

SR4-3 Standing or Special Committees may hold telephonic or email meetings, as needed.

SR4-4 Procedures for holding meetings by telephone for standing or special committees or the Executive Board are:

SR4-4-1 The President or Secretary notifies all members by email or telephone twenty-four hours prior to the meeting. An agenda is sent together with the minutes of the previous meeting, if applicable.

SR4-4-2 Members state their names when they join the meeting. Members who have to leave the meeting before its close inform the President or committee chair.

SR4-4-3 When a quorum is established, the President or committee chair announces the names of all members present and calls the meeting to order. The secretary takes minutes.

SR4-4-4 When seeking recognition, members address the President or chair, stating their names.

SR4-4-5 All votes are by polling.

SR4-5 Procedures for holding meetings of Standing or Special Committees by email:

SR4-5-1 The subject line reads: "Meeting of the (Name of) committee".

SR4-5-2 The meeting is limited to one topic at a time.

SR4-5-3 The President or committee chair sends the topic or motion to the committee members with any supporting rationale.

SR4-5-4 The format includes the total time for debate or discussion.

SR4-5-5 Members participate by using "reply all."

SR4-5-6 The President or committee chair puts any motion to a vote by restating the motion, noting a time limit for voting, and including a voting form showing "____In favor" and "____Opposed".

SR4-5-7 Although members vote by using "reply all," the President or committee chair announces the results of the vote.

SR4-5-8 The Secretary of the committee prints the entire thread of the meeting and retains it until the minutes of the meeting have been approved.

SR4-6 Procedures for holding Executive Board meetings by email:

SR4-6-1 The email meeting is held in closed Executive Session with a quorum present.

SR4-6-2 The subject line reads: "Confidential Meeting of the Executive Board."

SR4-6-3 The meeting is limited to one topic.

SR4-6-4 Non-voting members of the Executive Board may participate without vote.

SR4-6-5 The original main motion is submitted to the President.

SR4-6-6 The President sends the motion to the members. The format includes who recommended the motion, the rationale, and the question, "Is there any discussion?"

SR4-6-7 The total time allowed for debate is announced by the President.

SR4-6-8 Members debate by using "reply all."

SR4-6-9 Members submit any amendments to the President, who:

- States the motion as amended.

- Lets the members know the amount of time allotted to debate the amendment.

SR4-6-10 The President puts the question to a vote by:

- Writing the motion as amended.
- Stating the time limit the members have to vote.
- Providing a voting form as follows:
_____ In favor _____ Opposed

SR4-6-11 To close the meeting, the President announces the results of the vote and indicates any parts of the meeting that are not confidential.

SR4-6-12 The Secretary prints the entire thread of the meeting and retains it until the minutes of the meeting are approved.

SR4-7 Procedures for using Google Groups or other electronic communication groups:

SR4-7-1 The CLUB may set up a Google Group or other online communication tool that includes all CLUB members.

SR4-7-2 Upon becoming a member of the CLUB, the Google Group manager invites the new member to join. Google Group membership ceases automatically when a person is no longer a member of the CLUB.

SR4-7-3 Communications within the Google Group shall be limited to CLUB-related business or topics.

SR4-7-4 Communications on political topics not directly related to CLUB business are communicated on in a separate Google Group set up specifically for this purpose.

SR4-7-5 When a Google Group member does not follow SR1-1, the Google Group manager contacts the member. If the member has made a mistake and agrees to comply in the future, the member is given a warning and allowed to continue in the group. There are no second warnings. If the member refuses to comply with SR1-1, the member is immediately removed from the approved list of users.

SR4-7-6 These guidelines apply to all Google Groups formed for the use of members of the CLUB.

SR4-8 All public meetings of the CLUB may be photographed, videotaped, and/or audio-recorded.

SR4-8-1 The video and audio records shall not be published or distributed in any form without the approval of a majority of CLUB members present and voting.

SR4-8-2 Still photographs may be used on the official CLUB website or in VCDCC publications.

SR5 The President Makes Every Attempt to Attend: (ARTICLE VII - Section 2. D)
